FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

SUNDAYS OF THE YEAR

The longest section of the Church's liturgical year is the time from about now until Advent Sunday. On these green Sundays we celebrate the Mystery of Christ in its totality. That encompasses everything that we recalled from Advent until Pentecost: the hope of salvation, the coming of the Saviour, His hidden life, His public ministry, His saving Passion, His resurrection, His Kingship, His sending of the Holy Spirit. Week by week at Mass on the Sundays after Pentecost the Gospel presents us with various aspects of the content of general and public divine revelation.

That extended green season is enriched by numerous uplifting feastdays in the calendar: the Sacred Heart, the Precious Blood, the Assumption of our Lady, the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, the Holy Guardian Angels, and many more.

There is also the rich tapestry of saints' days and the many commemorations of our blessed Lady. Her pervasive presence throughout the liturgical year is one of the loveliest aspects of the Church's living tradition. That living tradition is to be treasured and handed on, living in Christ.

To live in Christ means entering into the Mysteries of His incarnate life, thus preparing for what we hope will be our vision of His infinite being in heaven. We prepare for that vision by being immersed in His divine life as deeply as possible here and now: the life of faith, the life of grace, life in the Holy Spirit.

Our life of faith must always bear fruit in our cultivation of the virtues, and that includes practising the spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

The corporal works of mercy are charitable acts of kindness by which we help our neighbours in their material and physical needs: to feed the hungry, to give drink to the thirsty, to shelter the homeless, to clothe the naked, to visit the sick, to visit the imprisoned, to bury the dead.

Equally necessary are the spiritual works of mercy. These are charitable acts of compassion by which we support our neighbours in their spiritual needs: to instruct the ignorant, to advise the doubtful, to admonish sinners, to comfort the afflicted, to forgive offences, to bear wrongs patiently, to pray for the living and the dead.

FEASTS OF THE WEEK:

St Barnabas A Cypriot Jew, he was an Apostle but not one of the twelve. It was he who introduced Saul (St Paul) to the other Apostles and also accompanied him to Cyprus. Barnabas is esteemed the Founder of the Church in Cyprus and is thought to have been martyred at Salamis.

St Anthony of Padua (1195-1231) He was born in Lisbon of a noble Portuguese family but gave up his wealthy lifestyle and embraced poverty as a Franciscan friar. Wishing to be a missionary, he was sent to Morocco to work but was forced to return to Europe due to poor health, and settled in Italy. It was soon discovered that he had a remarkable knowledge of the Bible and an outstanding ability as a preacher. Although he is frequently depicted in art as a rather benign looking young man, he was strong, fearless against lax clergy and oppressors of the defenceless, and was known in his lifetime as "the Hammer of the Heretics". Many of his works survive and he is a Doctor of the Church. He was canonised only a year after his death.

Pilgrimage: Fr Paul Dobson will be leading a 15 day pilgrimage to Greece and Malta 21 October to 4 November 2018, following in the footsteps of St. Paul. Please contact the office for details and the itinerary.

Pilgrimage: There will be a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and Jordan with Fr Michael Simoes, Sunday, December 2 to Friday, 14, 2018 visiting: Sea of Galilee, Tiberias, Magdala, Nazareth, Mount of Beatitudes, Peter's Primacy, Capernaum, Caesarea Philippi, Cana, Mt. Tabor, Jordan River, Jericho, Dead Sea, Jerusalem, Ein Karem, Shepherd's Field, Bethlehem, Petra, and Amman. For more details see the flyer on the bulletin board in the rear hallway or contact Liz Dachuk at Connaissance Travel & Tours 416-291-2676 ext. 239, or 1-877-701-7729 ext. 239.

Living the Gospel by helping youth rebuild their lives

Sarah couldn't get along with her mother, so she tried living on the streets at age 14. She hitchhiked to Toronto to move in with her cousin, who soon kicked her out. Having no place to go, Sarah decided to try Sancta Maria House. She initially hated the structure and rules. However, the supportive staff won her trust and helped her return to school. At the end of her stay, she restored her relationship with her mother. ShareLife-funded agencies like Sancta Maria House are helping at-risk youth turn their lives around.

Please make a sacrificial gift to ShareLife through your parish or sharelife.org

The Rosary Apostolate in the Schools is seeking volunteers who have great devotion to the Mother of God and who are willing to visit Pickering Catholic elementary schools to pray the Rosary with the children once a month. Training and screening are provided. Please contact Camille Jacques-Carr (905-509-8500).

HELP THE HOMELESS – ONLY $5.00!

Please drop off your $5.00 donation/gift card at the parish office. Thank you for your generosity!
