FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

The Fifth Sunday of Lent is often known as the "First Sunday in Passiontide", because now the "time of Our Lord's saving Passion is drawing closer". The Entrance Antiphon calls on God to be our Judge, recalling the plight of the Woman in the Gospel, who is in danger of death through condemnation by others, but is saved by the loving mercy of Christ. He is the Just Judge who rescues us from the injustice of "an ungodly nation". The plight of the woman is contrasted with that of Christ, for whereas she, the guilty one, is spared, Christ, the innocent Lamb of God is to be put to death by sinners. The illustration recalls the incident during the Forty Years in the Desert, when at God's command Moses struck the rock, and water flowed out to slake the people's thirst. In today's First Reading, the Prophet Isaiah recalls this as he foretells a yet greater gift of drink by God to his thirsty People: the "living water, which a man may drink, and never thirst again". This water, given by Christ, will be the gift of the Holy Spirit, the final fruit of His bitter Passion and glorious Resurrection and Ascension, in which we are now preparing to take part in the Liturgy of Easter

FEASTS OF THE WEEK:

St Martin I: He was elected Pope in 649 and shortly after, convened a Council and excommunicated the Emperor Constans II on the grounds of heresy. In response, the emperor ordered that the Pope be tried for treason in Constantinople and in 654 he was condemned to death, a sentence commuted to life imprisonment. He was exiled to the Crimea and died three months later of starvation.

Please note in April and May the First Saturday Traditional Latin Mass is cancelled, due to the First Holy Communion retreats and Masses.

What am I racing after in my life? Fame? Fortune? A life in Jesus? What is the prize I seek at the finish-line? If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto 416-968-0997, email: vocations@archtoronto.org website: www.vocationstoronto.ca

Living the Gospel by supporting those with disabilities

Ben, a 66-year-old with a developmental disability, lives with his 90-year-old mother. Without any other family, she didn't have a plan to take care of him after she no longer was able to do so. She turned to Mary Centre, a ShareLife agency, which matched Ben with a respite worker. This worker gradually introduced Ben to residents of one of Mary Centre's group homes. Now that he has befriended its residents and staff, Ben will find the eventual transition less overwhelming. He has already developed a sense of belonging to his future community.
