FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

HOLY WEEK

Today we are launched into the drama of Holy Week. As we make our way in solemn procession, we bring into the present Our Lord’s entry into Jerusalem. The Gospels bring us a detailed chronological account of the unfolding events. We see Our Lord command His disciples to bring Him a colt upon which no one has yet ridden. This very order fulfils an Old Testament incident involving King David and his sequestering of animals and goods, a privilege of ancient monarchs. As Jesus enters Jerusalem He does so as the hero-King setting out to battle, cheered on by His people. This occasion is commemorated in the liturgy by the solemn blessing and procession of palms. A Gospel account is read and then, accompanied by chant and ancient hymns to Christ the King, we tread our pilgrim path. After the procession, the tone changes from triumph to pathos as we hear the Gospel account of Christ’s suffering and death, and the Mass texts continue in the same vane. The Mass and liturgies of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday unravel the events leading up to Our Lord’s betrayal. We hear of Christ’s anointing at Bethany to the objection of Judas, of Our Lord’s prediction of His forthcoming burial, and of Peter’s protestations of lasting fidelity which all too soon are found wanting. While the principal liturgies of the Triduum: the Mass of the Lord’s Supper; the liturgy of the Passion and the Vigil are action-packed sacred dramas, the Divine Office of the Church is more meditative in tone. It helps us to recall the ancient prophecies of the suffering servant, of the infidelity of Jerusalem and of the saving effect of Our Lord’s self offering. The Holy Thursday and Good Friday services employ practices which have elsewhere disappeared. The solemn removal of the Blessed Sacrament and the Stripping of the Altars on Thursday, call to mind the fact that the early Christians hid away the Blessed Sacrament in times of persecution, and stripped bare the Table of the Lord to cover their tracks as it were. Allegorically, as we follow the Blessed Sacrament to the Altar of Repose, we are reminded of Our Lord’s journey to and subsequent vigil in the Garden of Olives, and of His degradation and stripping as the Altar is denuded of its ornaments. The Good Friday liturgy commences as the priests and ministers prostrate themselves flat on the ground. This is how the Mass always began in the early Church and, indeed, still does in the individual rites of some strict religious orders such as the Carthusians.

Please note in May the First Saturday Traditional Latin Mass is cancelled, due to the First Holy Communion retreats and Masses.

Archdiocesan Day of Prayer for Vocations

Cardinal Collins has designated Friday, May 3, 2019 as the Archdiocesan Day of Prayer for Vocations. We have three prayer intentions on this day: for the right discernment of vocations still unfolding; for endurance in committed vocations; and for an increase of priestly and religious vocations. Our parish prayer initiative is for an increase in Vocations. Check poster for details. If you are unable to attend this event, please take a moment to pray for vocations on Friday, May 3. Vocation resources can be found on the Office of Vocations’ website: www.vocationstoronto.ca.

Living the Gospel by supporting vocations

Martin Dicuango had a life-changing encounter when he visited Serra House, a residence run by St. Augustine’s Seminary for those discerning a priestly vocation. He is now a third-year theology student at St. Augustine’s. “I thank ShareLife for supporting St. Augustine’s Seminary,” says Martin, “where young men like myself, after experiencing the love of Christ, are joyfully preparing for ordination to the priesthood.”

May 5 is ShareLife Sunday.
Please give generously.
